THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. Tuk Jakova, together with two other high-ranking members of the Communist hierarchy in Albania, allegedly flew to Bucharest on 23 September to take part in the Rumanian "Five-Year Independence" anniversary celebration. The plane was forced down over Yugoslav territory by two fighter aircraft; Jakova was removed by the Yugoslav authorities, but the other two officials were permitted to continue their journey. [redacted] no further news has been heard from Jakova since that incident.
2. The speculation is that Jakova has secretly been in touch with Marshal Tito and that he had been a follower of Koci Xoxe.
